For the Interior of Your Home

and its furnishings there is nothing better nor more durable than

"NICE Stain-Namel"

It is a high grade varnish, colored to all natural wood and other shades. The coloring, by our special process, being dissolved in the varnish, not mixed into it. It has a durable gloss finish which adds richness and beauty wherever it is used.

Barlow's Indigo Blue

THE TRIED AND TRUE
WASH BLUE OF AMERICA

IT IS over fifty years since this article was discovered and introduced to the public for blueing clothes. Many attempts have been made to imitate it, but none have succeeded to equal it in quality. It is the purest and strongest, will not spot or streak the clothes, nor injure the finest fabric. Few articles have the endorsement of the public for half a century unless the quality merits it. This endorsement Barlow's Indigo Blue has well earned, making it the standard blueing throughout the country.

Trade Mark is registered and we caution the trade against handling goods imitating style and appearance

FOREWORD

The year 1919, events and statistics of which are recorded in the ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK for 1920, will pass into history as a year of great jubilation on account of the signing of the treaty of peace. Last year's ALMANAC was in course of preparation during the period of greatest suspense over the outcome of the World War and the element of supreme sacrifice, which was the price of victory, was brought vividly to our notice by the pictures of many of the sons of the Reformed Church who gave their lives in the service of their country. The ALMANAC for 1920 contains as complete a list as was possible to secure of the names of the young men of our denomination who will never return to their homes, but whose spirits have gone to God who gave them. The ALMANAC for 1920 naturally sounds a note of victory and of rejoicing. The year which is upon us, however, is one of great confusion because of the conflicting emotions and of underlying currents of opinion which are seeking to find expression. The readjustments which are being made are causing considerable anxiety, but it is becoming more evident every day that the solution of the great problems of reconstruction is to be found in the teachings of Jesus of Nazareth. This, therefore, is the great opportunity of the Church and that her leaders are awake to the real situation is evident from the progressive movements which followed so closely the signing of the armistice.

The special meeting of the General Synod held at Altoona, March 4-6, 1919, will be remembered as one of the most memorable gatherings in the history of the Reformed Church. The Synod was epoch-making and the enthusiasm of a faith unshaken which prevailed in the face of the greatest task ever undertaken will be recalled as unique in the annals of the Reformed Church. These great movements which are stirring Protestantism had their origin in the Christian consciousness of the great body of believers, who were not slow in discerning the "trend of things" in the world.

JOSEPH H. APPLE, LL.D.
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, FORWARD MOVEMENT OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES

The Forward Movement in the Reformed Church is no less important because it was projected after several similar activities in other denominations had been launched and had advanced to a point which practically guaranteed a successful conclusion. It is all the better prepared to carry on its work.

It would be a dereliction of duty on our part should we fail to give first place in the ALMANAC to the Forward Movement. It embodies the things that are most sacred in the Christian life; it stresses duties springing from the highest authoritative sources; it lays responsibilities upon the hearts of the people of the Reformed Church which we dare not shirk. From the consequences of the great struggle of humanity which has been going on there is no escape and the siren call of the age that is upon us, is to go forward. The Commission of Twenty-five, a group picture of whom appears on the next page, was appointed by action of the General Synod. It is constituted of men of vision and consecration. The Commission was fortunate in its selection of Prof. J. H. Apple, LL.D., as Executive Secretary.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT

The FORWARD MOVEMENT of the Reformed Church in the United States was launched at the special meeting of the General Synod held at Altoona, Pa., March 4-6, 1919. Several important events and conditions of the years preceding were responsible for its origin at this time. Ever since the time of the Peace Commission of 1879 the Church had been coming closer together, and our Foreign Mission work, begun in Japan about that time, had united us in a common task. The Laymen's Missionary Movement in 1909 had challenged the Church to engage in a comprehensive program to evangelize our share of the world in this generation. Through the annual every-member canvass and the use of the duplex envelope to receive the weekly offering, the Church was being trained to better financial methods. A Survey of the Church, in order to discover her world task and her resources, and a treatise on "Local Church Efficiency" were published in widely studied volumes. The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee was another step toward unifying the Church and enabling her to realize and discharge her full duty. Following the great Men's Congress at Allentown, Pa., in November, 1915, the Association of Schools, Colleges and Seminaries was formed, in order to secure greater coöperation among the educational institutions and to provide a large sum for their equipment and support. In and through all of this, harmony and coöperation among boards and institutions were displacing rivalry and competition, and the Church was both realizing her full strength as never before, and seeing more clearly her full duty to the whole world. The war disturbed many of these plans, but it also revealed in an unlooked-for way the world's dire need and the Church's resources with which to meet that need. Under such conditions the General Synod convened, and each of its many members felt a deep sense of the responsibility resting upon the Church in this grave crisis. Many came together in advance of the meeting to engage in prayer and counsel as to what steps the Synod should take. Largely attended meetings for prayer were held in the early evening of each day of the sessions. In this atmosphere the Forward Movement was born. The spirit breathed into the Movement at its start was that of penitent acknowledgment of the Church's shortcomings, and of humble seeking after God's will; of renewed consecration to the work of His Kingdom, and of high resolve to accept the double challenge of the world's need and the Church's opportunity.

To the Synod, each of the boards, institutions and agencies of the Church reported its needs, covering a period of five years, and its opportunities for advance if these needs were supplied. Under the stimulus of this series of challenges and in adopting the report of a committee of sixteen, appointed to consider them, the Synod unanimously took the following action:

1. That the General Synod inaugurate a new era movement for the Reformed Church in the United States.

2. That the General Synod endorse and coöperate in the inter-Church World Movement.

3. That the primary objectives of this campaign shall be the quickening and deepening of the spiritual life of the Church, the broadening of her interests and outlooks, the increasing of her efficiency, the promotion of the sense of Stewardship of life and possessions, the enlistment of men and women for service, the creation of a profounder sense of responsibility for the Christianizing of all human relationships and for bringing men in ever increasing numbers into the Kingdom of God, and the increasing of the spirit of unity and coöperation with the other Protestant Churches of America.

4. That the General Synod recognize that the following amounts represent the estimated needs of the various interests of our Church for the next five years, over and above the regular apportionments: Home Missions, $1,000,000; Foreign Missions, $1,115,700; Publication and Sunday Schools, $250,000; Ministerial Relief, $1,100,000; Schools, Colleges and Seminaries, $2,125,000; Board of Education, $200,000; total, $5,790,700, but that the final respective amounts be determined by a commission hereinafter recommended to be named, after a careful survey of all the various interests of the denomination has been made.

5. That the General Synod appoint a commission of twenty-five members for the conduct of the campaign on the basis of the following representation:

- (1) A representative from each of the nine Synods, and five from the Church-at-large, to be appointed by the President of the General Synod.

- (2) The President and the Stated Clerk of General Synod.

- (3) One representative from each of the following interests, to be selected by the interests themselves: Woman's Missionary Society, Foreign

6. That the Commission shall have the power to project the Campaign and erect such Committees and Agencies and incur such expenditure of funds as may be necessary.

The Commission called for by this action was finally constituted as follows:

Eastern Synod, Rev. Charles E. Creitz, D. D.; Ohio Synod, Rev. John O. Reagle, D. D.; Northwest Synod, Elder Philip Koehring; Pittsburgh Synod, Rev. Edward S. Bromer, D. D.; Potomac Synod, Rev. Abner S. DeChant, D. D.; German Synod of the East, Rev. Carl H. Gramm, D. D.; Interior Synod, Rev. Ernest N. Evans; Central Synod, Rev. Adolph Krampe, D. D.; Southwest Synod, Rev. William H. Knierim; President of General Synod, Rev. Charles E. Miller, D. D.; Stated Clerk of General Synod, Rev. J. Rauch Stein; Representatives of the Church at large, Rev. Josias Friedli, Elder Emory L. Coblentz, Elder Harry E. Paisley, Elder H. F. Texter, Elder George B. Smith;

Board of Foreign Missions, Rev. Allen R. Bartholomew, D. D.; Board of Home Missions, Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer, D. D.; Publication and Sunday School Board, Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D. D.; Board of Home Missions of Northwest, Central and Southwest Synods, Rev. Henry W. Vitz, D. D.; Woman's Missionary Society, Mrs. W. R. Harris; Central Publishing House, Rev. F. W. Leich; Board of Ministerial Relief, Rev. J. W. Meminger, D. D.; Association of Schools, Colleges and Theological Seminaries, Rev. Henry H. Apple, D. D.; Laymen's Missionary Movement, Rev. William E. Lampe, Ph. D.

The Commission met promptly on March 25, with a large attendance, and effected the following organization: Chairman, Dr. Charles E. Miller; Vice-Chairman, Dr. Charles E. Creitz; Recording Secretary, Dr. William E. Lampe; Treasurer, Elder Harry E. Paisley, these officers to constitute the Executive Committee. It was decided to name the movement thus inaugurated THE FORWARD MOVEMENT, and to choose as its text, Exodus 14: 15, "Speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward." The general management of the campaign was placed in the hands of an officer to be known as the Executive Secretary, and President Joseph H. Apple, of Hood College, was challenged to accept this position.

At the second meeting of the Commission, April 29, the Executive Secretary was present, and in accepting the challenge of the Commission proposed further organization as follows: that four departments be created, i. e., the Department of Spiritual Resources, the Department of the Stewardship of Life and Possessions, the Department of Education and Publicity, and the Department of Field Work, each in charge of a Secretary giving his full time, and these four with the Executive Secretary to constitute the Secretarial Staff. Three regions were provided for, the Eastern, the Central, and the Western, each containing three Synods and each having a Regional Secretary. The entire group of eight secretaries constitute the Secretarial Council. The organization from the regional secretaries to the congregations to be through Synodical and Classical Chairmen, and leaders in congregations and congregational groups of ten or twelve families, or about thirty members, each under a leader. It is proposed through this organization to reach from headquarters in the Reformed Church building at Philadelphia down through the regional secretaries, synodical and classical chairmen, and the congregational and group leaders to the last member or in some phases of the work to reach congregational groups and individuals through their leaders direct from headquarters.

The Department of Spiritual Resources was organized with Rev. E. S. Brömer, D. D., as Secretary. This Department proceeded at once to organize the Fellowship of Intercession, and to challenge the entire church to humiliation and prayer, as individuals, as families, as organizations and as a Church. This department is based on the conviction that "prayer unlocks the energies of God in man" and that these energies, wisely directed, will hasten the coming of the Kingdom.

Of the Department of the Stewardship of Life and Possessions, Dr. William E. Lampe is the Secretary. The first step in the further promotion of Christian Stewardship in our Church is to have our pastors and people make a thorough study of the subject, and, apprehending the meaning and scope of the principles of Stewardship, apply these principles fully in their earning, spending and giving. During the fall and early winter there will be sermons on Stewardship, our people will form Stewardship study classes, and on December 7 they will be invited to enroll in the Fellowship of Stewardship. After January greater emphasis will be placed upon the Stewardship of Life and the application of the principles of Stewardship.

Dr. George L. Omwake, of Ursinus College, is Secretary of the Department of Education and Publicity. This Department will issue all printed matter relating to the FORWARD MOVEMENT, including a Bulletin to appear every two weeks beginning about September 15, and folders, leaflets, texts, etc. A Forward Movement Manual is being prepared ready for study as a textbook by every congregational group beginning as soon as possible after January 1, and continuing through the spring.

The Department of Field Work has as its Secretary, Principal Edwin M. Hartman, of Franklin and Marshall Academy. Its first purpose is to bring the Message of the Forward Movement through the spoken word in conferences, conventions, congresses, at regular and special meetings of Synods and Classes and in congregations, to every member of the church. It will use pastors, members of Boards, of institutions and other agencies, special speakers, minute men and women, group leaders, etc., to proclaim the message throughout the Church. This department also cooperates in organizing the forces of the Church so as to facilitate the accomplishment of the tasks which the Church has undertaken in the Forward Movement.

For increased efficiency in all departments the territory of the Church has been divided into three regions. The Eastern Region includes the Eastern Synod, the Potomac Synod and the German Synod of the East, and has as its Secretary Rev. William F. DeLong, with headquarters at Harrisburg, Pa. The Central Region includes the Pittsburgh Synod, the Ohio Synod and the Central Synod, and has Rev. George W. Good as its Secretary, with headquarters at Akron, Ohio. The Western Region includes the Synod of the Northwest, the Synod of the Southwest and the Interior Synod, and has as its Secretary Rev. L. D. Benner, with headquarters at Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

A Committee on Survey was appointed by the Commission, with Dr. Charles E. Schaeffer as chairman. This Committee has for its task a complete survey of all the agencies and institutions of the Church, with a view of determining their resources, capabilities and needs for a period of five years, and of recommending the appropriate budget for each.

A Finance Committee, with Elder Emory L. Coblentz as chairman, has taken into consideration the entire financial side of the FORWARD MOVEMENT embodying ways and means of securing the total budget as agreed upon.

A committee is considering the relation of the apportionment for the current needs of the various boards to the FORWARD MOVEMENT budget.

The objectives of the FORWARD MOVEMENT are well set forth in the action of the General Synod already quoted. The Church will do well to have continually in mind these statements of purpose and to breathe ever anew the spirit of devotion and determination in which they were conceived. The entire Reformed Church has now united for the performance of her full duty to the whole world. The task is big enough and broad enough to enlist the active interest and coöperation of every man, woman and child.

It is essentially a spiritual MOVEMENT, and can accomplish its purpose only as we all have faith in God and in His overruling Providence. It calls for growth in grace and power through prayer and in the recognition and practice of the stewardship of life and possessions. It requires that the great objectives of the Kingdom of God become the personal hopes and aspirations of every member of the Church. It involves both individual and united effort in attaining these objectives.

In the FORWARD MOVEMENT the Reformed Church has constituted itself a committee of the whole to perform in one comprehensive program and in a larger and more effective way, the various undertakings which its boards and institutions have hitherto attempted to do separately and with only partial success. It aims to provide means, in men and money, adequate for the enlargement and maintenance of all our work as needed for a period of five years. The work includes home missions, foreign missions, ministerial relief, educational institutions, beneficiary education, publications and Sunday Schools. When the FORWARD MOVEMENT has accomplished this, the real forward movement of the Church will have begun.

THE UNITED MISSIONARY AND STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

During the last year unusually rapid and very substantial progress has been made in the Missionary and Benevolent work of our Reformed Church. Classes, congregations, and people are taking a much greater interest and are supporting the work with a somewhat greater degree of adequacy.

Modern financial methods, the Annual Every-Member Canvass, the weekly offering for Missions and Benevolences as well as for current expenses, and the double envelope, have been quite generally adopted. Congregations not using these approved and successful methods are now in a rapidly decreasing minority. The Committee is continuing its work of demonstrating the value of these methods to congregations which may not have adopted them, and is also assisting congregations which have already adopted them to apply them more thoroughly every year.

The general policy of the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee for the present triennium, between the meetings of the General Synods of 1917 and 1920, is that during the first year (which closed with the meetings of the Classes in May and June, 1918) especial emphasis should be given to the raising of the Apportionment in full; the second year (until June, 1919) should be devoted to reaching the goal of securing the full Apportionment, and at the same time giving especial attention to the promotion of Christian Stewardship; the third year (ending with the meeting of the General Synod in 1920) should be a time when every congregation of the denomination should be appealed to, to give at least "As much for Others as for Ourselves."

In the classical year which ended with May 31, 1919, very substantial progress was made in the matter of the payment of the Apportionment. The records show that the Apportionment was paid in full by more than 500 congregations. Eight Classes paid in full—100% or more—and six other Classes almost reached their quotas, having paid more than 90%. The entire denomination paid nearly two-thirds (63.31%) of the whole Apportionment for Home Missions and Foreign Missions. There was a net increase of $48,487 for Home Missions and Foreign Missions on the Apportionment during the one year, and an increase of about 50% during the last two years for the four Boards of the Church. There seems to be a determination on the part of the denomination as a whole to pay the full 100% of the Apportionment this year. It will not be accomplished without hard work but it can be done.

There is greater interest in the Reformed Church in the promotion of Christian Stewardship than ever before in our history. The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee voted December 7, 1917, to establish and promote the "Fellowship of Stewardship" throughout the Reformed Church. The principles of this "Fellowship" are: (1) God is the owner of all things; (2) Man is a steward and must account for all that is entrusted to him; (3) God's ownership and man's stewardship are to be acknowledged by the setting apart of a definite portion of income for the extension of the Kingdom of Christ.

The number of congregations giving "As much for Others as for Ourselves" has greatly increased. There were twenty-three such congregations in 1915, twenty-eight in 1916, thirty-one in 1917, and sixty-four in 1918. It is hoped that there will be at least one hundred such congregations during the classical year 1919-1920.

The Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees have been very active during the last year; the value of these workers to the denomination can scarcely be over-estimated. There is a definiteness and enthusiasm in their work, and such a degree of unity and harmony in their coöperation with each other and with General Synod's Committee, that there is cause for real encouragement for all the work of the denomination. A Conference held at Lancaster, Pa., and another at Dayton, Ohio, included members of the committees of practically every Classis of the Church. These meetings afforded an excellent opportunity for passing on plans of the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee, and the most successful plans of the Classical Committees, to all of the workers throughout the Church. A Conference was held in June, 1919, at Allentown, Pa., attended by the Classical Committees, Classical Treasurers and Stated Clerks of six Classes of Eastern Synod. These Classes comprise more than one-fourth of the membership of the denomination, and they have been responsible for one-third of the deficit of the Missionary Apportionment. By helping each other they will be able to lift the standards of this important section of our Church.

Special meetings were held during the year in about twenty-five Classes of the Church. The main item of business at these meetings was "to hear and act upon a special report of the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committee." At these meetings the Classes gave approval to the plans of the Classical Committees for programs of work during the year, and in practically every instance the Classical Committees carried them out faithfully, and thus helped the Classis and all of the congregations of the Classis to do their full duty. The General Synod, the District Synods, and a majority of the Classes themselves, have approved and urged the holding of these special meetings for the purpose of putting forward the work of the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees, and at least one such meeting should be held in every Classis every year.

General Synod's Committee, with the coöperation of the Classical Treasurers and Classical Committees, prepared a set of Classical Treasurers' Account Forms, which have been adopted by a number of Classes and Classical Treasurers and are now in use. It is planned to make these Forms available for every Classis in the Church.

The Special Meeting of the General Synod at Altoona, Pa., March 4, 1919, marks an epoch in our denominational history. The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee, acting under instructions of the last General Synod, prepared the Blue Book containing the reports of all Boards and Committees, and also the Docket of business for this special meeting. In its own report to the General Synod the Committee set forth the conditions as they are in the new era upon which we have entered, pointed to the task that is confronting us as a Church, recommended a forward movement or campaign, and suggested certain fundamental principles which should be kept in mind in such a campaign. The General Synod inaugurated what is now known as The Forward Movement of our Church. The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee is heartily coöperating. The promotion of Christian Stewardship during the time the Forward Movement is in progress will be through the Department of Stewardship of Life and Possessions of the Forward Movement. The Secretary of the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee, during this year, is devoting the greater part of his time and energy to the secretaryship of the Department of Stewardship of the Forward Movement. All of the other regular work of the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee—coöperation with Classical and Congregational Missionary and Stewardship Committees, the Every-Member Canvass, and the weekly offering, helping to raise the full Apportionment throughout the denomination, the distribution of literature, and serving as "A Financial Bureau for Consultation without charge by Ministers, Laymen and Congregations of the Church"—is being carried on and attended to as usual by the Committee.

A CALL TO SERVICE

The trumpet is sounding,
Its note is resounding

From ocean to ocean in stirring appeal!
Awake to the glory
Of telling Christ's story,
His Spirit is waiting the nations to heal!

Wait not, Christian brother,
Nor leave to another

The task of enlarging Christ's Kingdom today.
Be up and be doing
For God is renewing

All things—haste to labor, to fight and to pray.

—John H. Yates.

HOME MISSIONS

The Board of Home Missions of General Synod has 160 Missions on its roll. Its work consists in establishing new missions and giving them financial support until they are able to go to self-support. At the same time it has enlarged its work and is interesting itself in every phase of Christianizing the life of America in its manifold expressions.

The Board consists of twelve members who are elected by the General Synod. This Board meets annually in July. Five of its number constitute an Executive Committee which meets quarterly. The work is carried forward by a General Secretary and Department Superintendents, of whom there are five. It has arranged its work under different departments, thus making it possible for each phase of the work to receive full supervision and direction.

The Missionaries are supported from the General Fund, which is maintained by the Apportionment. The receipts in this Department last year were $159,878.33. At its annual meeting the Board increased the appropriations to its Missionaries by twenty per cent., which involves an additional expenditure of $30,000 for the current year.

The erection of church buildings is made possible by the Church-building Fund Department. The Board has 671 funds enrolled, aggregating $440,168. At its annual meeting it voted loans for Church buildings to the amount of $155,000.

Phases of Work

In addition to the work in English speaking Missions, the Board is carrying forward work among the following nationalities: Hungarians, Bohemians, Japanese, Jewish, Negro, Indians. The Board is also employing seven deaconesses. These are supported by the Woman's Missionary Society of the General Synod. The Woman's Missionary Society has signified its willingness to finance the erection of an educational building for the Japanese Mission in San Francisco.

The work in the German-English Synods is carried forward by two Boards of their own, known as the Board of Home Missions of the Northwest, Southwest and Central Synods, and the Board of Church Erection of these three Synods. Rev. Theodore P. Bolliger, D. D., has recently been elected as the Secretary of these Boards. They have 59 Missions under their jurisdiction.

Cooperating with the Forward Movement

The Board of Home Missions will coöperate with the Forward Movement Commission in its comprehensive program during the current year. A tabulation of its needs and opportunities in prosecuting its work during the next few years reveals the fact that at least one million dollars will be required for the work of Home Missions. If this sum of money can be secured through the instrumentality of the Forward Movement, the work of Home Missions will be enhanced and enlarged in a most satisfactory manner.

The part which America plays in the reconstruction of the world's civilization makes the enlargement of the work of Home Missions an imperative factor in Christianizing the life of our country. The problem of Americanization, which vitally concerns the work of Home Missions, makes larger demands upon the Board than ever before. The rapidly developing industrial centers in America furnish the strongest kind of an appeal for an aggressive Christianizing program on the part of the Church of Jesus Christ in this country.

self-help on the part of the native Christians is the spirit of self-sacrifice that they are manifesting in liberal gifts towards the restoration of the Middle School building and dormitory.

The World War has taught us anew the worth of the foreign missionary. He has been the strong link in the chain of inter-racial fellowship, and one of the real redemptive forces in the world.

Great as has been the progress of the foreign missionary enterprise, there is still work which remains to be begun, and a great deal of work that is left undone. Vast areas of population have never seen a missionary, nor heard of the Christ.

The destruction by fire of the North Japan College buildings, March 2, 1919, was a great loss to the work. Apart from the financial loss, the training of over 600 boys and young men was seriously retarded. The Church will need to supplement the $45,000 insurance by at least $60,000. PHOTOGRAPH OF THE JAPAN MISSION TAKEN AT THE FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ORGANIZATION OF THE WORK

The special contributions of $15,000, pledged by individuals and congregations at the special meeting of the General Synod held at Altoona, Pa., in March, 1919, made possible the sending out of the ten new missionaries to Japan and China during the past year.

Why are the people in non-Christian lands in need of our help? The causes for it vary in different countries. Wages are low and food is scarce. Poverty reigns supreme in China, India and Africa. More people suffer from the pangs of hunger in India than in Belgium and Poland combined. There is famine in some part of the Orient all the time.

An investment that yields rich returns to patrons and students is the support of the young men and women in our schools in Japan and China who are seeking a Christian education. Converts to the Christian faith should be able to give a reason for the faith that is in them, and they should have educational advantages if they are to be real helpers in evangelizing their native lands. Due to the present high cost of everything, the amount for a beneficiary student should be $50 per annum. Information can be had by writing to the Secretary of the Board.

The annual conferences of the Board of Foreign Missions with its new missionaries and those home on furlough are proving to be very helpful. Last July the Board assembled its missionaries at Hood College and with them spent three days in most delightful fellowship. It was good to talk over the intricate problems that face the Board and the Missions. Only echoes of helpfulness and appreciation were heard from those in attendance.

Frequently members ask the question, "How can we help to carry on the work in Japan and China?" Two of the most tangible ways of helping are by giving chapel funds of $500 or $1000, and by Annuity Bonds, the latter being a safe investment for well-doing, and a sure income for life. A sample Annuity Bond will be sent to any one who may desire it. Address the Secretary of the Board, Reformed Church Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

The ten new missionaries sent to Japan and China represent the best that our schools of learning impart, and we believe their parents are among the noblest type of Christians. So far as we can tell, the missionary fires have been burning at these home altars for many years, and there has been a growing desire in the hearts of these young people that they might go and preach the gospel in Japan and China. As such the Board has sent them forth in the name of the Church whose ambassadors for Christ they hope to be. Their names and fields of labor are as follows: Rev. and Mrs. George Randolph Snyder, evangelist, China; Rev. and Mrs. Sterling W. Whitener, evangelist, China; Miss Tasie M. Shaak, nurse, China; Rev. and Mrs. Frank L. Fesperman, evangelist, Japan; Mr. Arthur D. Smith, teacher, Japan; Miss Rosina A. Black, evangelist, Japan; Miss Elizabeth C. Zetty, teacher, Japan.

The outlook of missions has never been so hopeful, nor the times so critical. Christianity today is both on exhibition and on trial in Europe, Asia and Africa. We need to devote the best gifts, the rarest talents and the highest agencies to witness to its power and to represent its claims to an ever-increasing heathen-world audience. During the past century we are told 3,000,000 souls were won for Christ in heathen lands, but in that same period of time 200,000,000 were born into the world.

After years of faithful service, Prof. Paul L. Gerhard, Miss Kate I. Hansen, and Miss Lydia A. Lindsey are home on furlough from our Japan Mission, and Rev. Edwin A. Beck, Rev. Paul E. Keller, Miss Gertrude B. Hoy, and Miss Helen B. Ammerman from our China Mission.

The newly elected Director of Religious Education for Southwest and Interior Synods, Rev. William H. He studied in the Mission House at Franklin, Wis. graduating from the College in 1903 and from the Seminary in 1906. After completing his course at the Mission House he attended the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. After his ordination he received an appointment as missionary-at-large from the Tri-Synodic Board of Home Missions in the Dakotas, where he labored for 2½ years. In the fall of 1908 he received a call from the Immanuel Reformed Church of Indianapolis, Indiana, which charge he has served for the last 11 years. He was President of Indiana Classis in 1912 and 1917. In 1914 he was a delegate to General Synod. At present he holds the following positions: Chairman of the Missionary and Educational Conference of Indianapolis, President of the Sunday School and Young People's Board of Southwest Synod, Chairman of the Commission of Union of Trinity Reformed Church, Canton, Rev. H. N. Kerst, pastor, has the largest Men's Bible Class in the denomination, numbering 250 members.

Salem Reformed Church, Cincinnati, Rev. E. H. Wessler, pastor, has the largest Home Department in the denomination, numbering over 200 members. Mrs. Wm. H. Frersing is the Superintendent.

4917 Teacher Training students were enrolled in 576 classes last year.

$8529.97 received last year is the high water mark in offerings received on Children's Day for the Educational and Missionary work carried on by the Publication and Sunday School Board.

The Educational Campaign for Home, Country and Brotherhood launched by the Publication and Sunday School Board last fall has given way to the Forward Movement of General Synod. The main features of the campaign are to be incorporated in the Forward Movement, as its Sunday School Forward Movement plans. The five points of this campaign were as follows: (1) The Service of Worship and Preaching, (2) the Sunday School, (3) the Family Altar, (4) the Church Paper, (5) the Prayer Meeting.

Teacher Training classes deserving of special mention are St. Peter's, Lancaster, taught by Dr. Theodore F. Herman, and two at Evangelical Reformed Sunday School, Frederick, Md., consisting of students of Hood College, taught respectively by the Misses M. Motter and R. Carty.

The number of Summer Daily Vacation Bible Schools is steadily increasing in the denomination.

$738.64 was donated in grants of literature to Mission Sunday Schools and other needy schools during the year.

A Sunday School missionary has been authorized for Kansas City to be supported conjointly by the Board of Home Missions and the Publication and Sunday School Board. This type of work is to be enlarged in the future.

During the year a bequest to the amount of $2,000 was received from the estate of Mr. Augustus L. Kaub, for the promotion of the work of the Young People's Department of the Board. Mr. Kaub was for many years a member of the Executive Committee.

Immanuel Reformed Church, Baltimore, Rev. J. S. Kosower, pastor, has completed its $500 Children's Endowment Fund, known as the Hauser-Strott Fund, in honor of a former pastor and superintendent, respectively.

The most important event of the year is the proposed union, for purposes of Sunday School promotion, of the Sunday School Council of Evangelical denominations, and the International Sunday School Association. This step presages the greatest forward step in Sunday School work we have ever experienced. It presupposes:

1. Religious Education as a possibility for every child of the land, through local church or community schools of religion.

2. Week-day Religious Education as a regular part of the Educational system of the land, without any entangling relations between Church and State.

3. Community training schools for the adequate training of teachers to meet the coming needs of religious education.

4. A challenge to the higher institutions of learning to provide for educational supervision in Church schools.

The girl in the picture pressed on through the forest and up to the mountain top where Eagle Peak gave her an unobstructed view in every direction.

The furnishing of a new cottage, the repairing of the old buildings, the continuance of exorbitant prices, the difficulty of getting a sufficient number of properly qualified helpers at the Home, the demand for higher salaries and increased wages—these are among the things which obstruct our vision and drive us to the hills whence cometh our help.

From our Eagle Peak of faith we look down upon our troubles, over our difficulties, out to our friends and up to our God with the confident assurance that He will direct and inspire His people and bless their efforts to make adequate provision for all of Bethany's needs.

Rev. A. M. Keifer, Superintendent

The year just closing has been an exceedingly important one in the history of this institution. It has demonstrated beyond doubt that the present capacity of the Home is not sufficient to meet the demands for the kind of work she is doing, and that her many friends are willing to make larger contributions in order that the blessings and privileges of the Home may be extended to more children and that the work may be more effective.

In October, 1917, Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Ferner made a gift of stocks valued then at $80,700.00, and a little later gave notice of the donation of the dividends from January 1, 1918. Since then and up to June 1, 1919, the following additional legacies were received: in memory of Mrs. M. C. Davis, by her husband and children, $40.00; estate of Laura V. Hoffman Hodges, $968.75; Anna C. Heckbach, $500.00; Julius Bishop and his wife, Caroline, $100.00; Clara Bishop, $25.00; George Griser, $190.00; Clarion Classis, $40.00; Alexander Leonard, $1000.00; Catharine Anne Byerly, $500.00; the Ezra Taylor Memorial Endowment, $1910.36; the Peter Keil Memorial Fund, $13,000.00; and the Henry Knight Memorial Fund, $5000.00.

A program for enlarging the Home has been adopted and when completed will double the capacity. In view of this we are asking for additional endowment funds and larger contributions during the Christmas season.

GOING TO CHAPEL—ST. PAUL'S ORPHANS' HOME

FORT WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME

Fort Wayne, Ind.

Rev. John F. Winter, Superintendent

From July, 1918, to July, 1919, we cared for 117 homeless children from Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota and Kentucky. Central, Ohio, Northwest and Southwest Synods have contributed to this number.

The health of our children was most excellent, except during the two weeks when 65 children had the "flu" in a very mild form.

A kind friend donated a new piano for our chapel. To enhance good taste for music a number of friends contributed toward the purchase of an Edison phonograph. Half of the purchase price was given by the children's work fund.

We must look forward to the erection of a cottage for quite small children, whom we must now deny admittance because of the lack of proper equipment. Here would be a most excellent opportunity for some one to rear a lasting monument.

HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE

Littlestown, Pa.

Rev. Andrew H. Smith, Superintendent

Will be ten years old next January. To accommodate more of the many destitute orphans in the different parts of Potomac Synod, we are building two more cottages, a school house, a heating plant and a sewage disposal plant. The old cottage will henceforth be called "Barkley Cottage" for boys, then to the right of the Helb administration building will be the "Emmanuel Cottage" for girls, the Zion Classis cottage for smaller girls and boys, and the Maryland Classis Schoolhouse.

YOUNG MOTHERS, FT. WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME

The accompanying picture is that of two of our best cooks and general housekeepers. Since August 2,

COOKS, HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE

1917, these two girls, with the assistance of the younger girls, have been doing our cooking. Nellie Frock, the girl to your right, will be of age (18) February 25, 1920, the other, Mary Smouse, will be of age March 13, 1920. Both girls aspire to the teaching profession, for which they have many qualifications. In less than ten years we thus will have seven "graduates," four girls and three boys. The other two girls are, one a trusted clerk in the Pennsylvania Railroad offices in Altoona, the other a second-year student nurse in the York Hospital. The first boy is on a neighboring farm, the second an honored member of Uncle Sam's aviation boys in France, the third an assistant on an extensive and up-to-date poultry farm near Hanover, Pa.

Our expansion will mean more help. We trust that the women in our Church will heed our appeals for help in the line of matron, cook, and teacher.

NAZARETH ORPHANS' HOME

Rev. W. B. Werner, Superintendent

There are 54 children in the Home—30 boys and 24 girls. The boys have a good, comfortable dormitory in which they are housed. Our girls' building is very inadequate. The building is very inconvenient and old. The Board of Managers decided to erect a new and more commodious structure. For this we need the assistance of our friends. The building as proposed will cost about $25,000.00. The electric light plant of which I spoke last year has been installed and paid for. We thank our friends for their kindness.

The Home owns now about 120 acres of land. The Board just bought a tract of 16 acres of fine farming land. The soil on some of the land which we have is thin and not very productive. This additional land will be a great help to the Home. We ought to have still more land, if it could be secured. Our dairy should be larger, if it could be maintained. We trust in the course of time these circumstances will so shape themselves that this problem will be happily solved. Our truck patch is a very interesting portion of our farm. This little field yields all our vegetables used at the Home, and of some kinds more than can be used. We gathered cucumbers at first by the bucket, then the bushel measure, now several wheelbarrows are required; we also got other vegetables, and strawberries and raspberries, as many as could be used.

The number of farmers, mechanics and good citizens we raise at our institution is determined by the liberality of our supporters.

MOWING CLOVER—NAZARETH ORPHANS' HOME

In this picture, seated on the mowing machine, you see one of our boys. During the last two years our boys did all the work on the farm and also the wood chopping. This work they are doing under the direction of the superintendent. During the war it was impossible to secure a desirable man to take the lead in the work and charge of the boys. While we keep our boys and girls busy with a proper amount of recreation alternating, the aim, however, of our institution is not to raise farmers only. Indeed but few of the boys who left the Home are following this vocation, but others have found their way into other avenues of life and are making good in their vocations.

THE CHILDREN'S SAVIOUR

Christ, Who once among us
As a child did dwell,
Is the children's Saviour,
And He loves us well;
If we keep our promise
Made Him at the font,
He will be our Shepherd,
And we shall not want.

There it was they laid us
In those tender arms,
Where the lambs are carried
Safe from all alarms;
If we trust His promise,
He will let us rest
In His arms forever,
Leaning on His breast.

Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not:
for to such belongeth the Kingdom of God * * * And he took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands upon them—Mark 10: 14, 16.

Though we may not see Him
For a little while,
We shall know He holds us,
Often feel His smile;
Death will be to slumber
In that sweet embrace,
And we shall awaken
To behold His face.

Jesus, our good Shepherd,
Laying down thy life,
Lest thy sheep should perish
In the cruel strife,
Help us to remember
All Thy love and care,
Trust in Thee, and love Thee
Always, everywhere.

W. St. Hill Bourne.

PHOEBE DEACONESS AND OLD FOLKS' HOME

Rev. F. H. Moyer, the newly elected superintendent of the Home, assumed the duties of his office September 1, 1919.

The Home is beautifully located in the western part of the city of Allentown, Pa. There are two buildings at present, one is used as a training school and home for the deaconesses, the other is devoted to the care of the old folks.

The deaconesses now in the service have given a good account of themselves in the parishes into which they have been called, both in nursing and in religious work.

The management aims to secure a new class to train for this work and invites women of the best Christian spirit to enter this noble calling. Applicants for admission to this training school should be of mature age and should have a good educational foundation upon which to build the three-year course given here.

MISS CARRIE M. KERSCHNER
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE W. M. S. OF GENERAL
SYNOD

The Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod has made a wise choice in the selection of Miss Carrie M. Kerschner as their Executive Secretary. She brings to this new position a varied experience. Miss Kerschner is the daughter of Rev. J. G. Kerschner, of Palmetton, Pa. Her two brothers are also ministers in our Church. She is a graduate of the Pottstown Business College, and attended Ursinus College. For five years she served as preceptress at the College for Women at Allentown, and during the past five years she was a teacher in our Japanese Mission in San Francisco. Miss Kerschner enters upon her important office with commendable zeal. She has the work at heart and is a magnetic speaker.

"It is well to remember that the greatest results in the moral and spiritual world are apparently effected in periods of time that seem altogether inadequate. This is not really so, but the truth is that God not only works in mysterious ways, but in ways that to the untrained and unpracticed eye are without observation."—Rev. George F. Pentecost, D.D.

THE WAR EMERGENCY CAMPAIGN

The War Emergency Campaign, as carried forward in the early part of 1919, was the answer of the united Protestantism of our country to the religious needs of our soldiers and sailors during the period of demobilization and to desperate needs of the Protestant churches in Belgium and France. In our Reformed Church the campaign was organized by our delegates to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ of America who, by General Synod at Dayton, had been constituted a body which came to be known as the National Service Commission. The organization perfected to carry forward the War Emergency Campaign was as follows:

OFFICERS OF THE COMMITTEE

Rev. C. E. Schaeffer, D.D., Chairman; Rev. Jas. I. Good, D.D., LL.D., Vice-Chairman; Rev. Paul S. Leinbach, D.D., Vice-Chairman; Rev. W. Stuart Cramer, Secretary; Mr. Harry E. Paisley, Treasurer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The above officers and Rev. E. S. Bromer, D.D., Rev. C. E. Creitz, D.D., Rev. A. S. DeChant, D.D., Rev. C. H. Gramm, D.D., Mrs. L. L. Anewalt.

ADDITIONAL MEMBERS

Rev. H. H. Apple, D.D., LL.D., Prof. Joseph H. Apple, LL.D. Prof. Calvin O. Althouse, Rev. A. R. Bartholomew, D.D., Mr. Frank Brown, Prof. H. J. Benchoff, Mr. F. C. Brunhouse, Rev. Henry J. Christman, D.D., Rev. W. F. Curtis, Litt.D., Rev. J. M. G. Darms, D.D., Rev. J. Friedli, D.D., Prof. E. M. Hartman, Mr. H. E. Hartman, Rev. T. F. Herman, D.D., Prof. W. M. Irvine, LL.D., Rev. W. E. Lampe, Ph.D., Rev. J. W. Meminger, D.D., Rev. C. E. Miller, D.D., LL.D., Rev. R. W. Miller, D.D., Mr. E. H. Marcus, Mr. Charles H. Leinbach, Prof. G. Leslie Omwake, Pd.D., Rev. J. G. Rupp, Rev. Geo. W. Richards, D.D., Rev. Wm. C. Schaeffer, D.D., Rev. Philip Vollmer, D.D., Mr. J. S. Wise, Mrs. W. R. Harris, Mrs. E. F. Evemeyer, Mrs. I. W. Hendricks.

This Committee challenged the Rev. James M. S. Isenberg, D.D., pastor of Trinity Church, Philadelphia, to act as director of the campaign. Trinity congregation cheerfully loaned for three months the services of its pastor. The months of December, 1918, and January, 1919, were given to perfecting an organization to reach down to every local congregation of the Reformed Church. In the states of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina and New York there were county or sectional units responsible for pushing the campaign. In all other states the appeal was made direct to the local congregation through the pastor or consistory. During January a small bulletin was issued weekly and sent direct to all pastors and superintendents. Special booklets were issued, covering the plan and purpose of the campaign, in quantity sufficient for one copy to be placed in every family in the denomination. A booklet by Dr. J. I. Good, entitled "Our Debt to the Protestant Churches of France and Belgium," was sent to all pastors.

February 2 to 10 was designated as the time to make the appeal for funds. The total amount to be raised had been set at $110,000. A quota had been determined upon and sent to each county or district unit and where there was no such unit, direct to the local congregation. Religion and patriotism were united in the appeal in an exceptional way with the result that the stream of generosity swelled in an unprecedented way. Some churches went far "over the top." The testimony of pastors was that it was the easiest money they ever attempted to raise. There were of course some pastors and some congregations which took no part in this great campaign. However, it was early evident that the goal of the campaign, namely $110,000, had been reached. By May 1 that amount had reached the hands of the Treasurer, Mr. Harry E. Paisley. By September 15 the total was $120,073.23, with more to follow.

The expenses of the campaign were less than $5000. The Fund was distributed as follows: $3000 to the American Bible Society, $23,000 to our National Service Commission, and $3000 to the War-Time Commission of the Churches, $50,000 was sent to France and Belgium through the Federal Council of Churches and $25,000 has been set aside for a proper memorial in some form, in France, to the boys of the Reformed Church who gave their all "over there." Dr. J. I. Good is investigating what will be the most fitting thing to do and at the same time the most deserving need to meet. The amount over and above the original sum will no doubt be added to that which goes to France as a memorial to our boys.

The successful completion of this campaign will prove a great stimulus to every other campaign which the Church may undertake. Let us hope it is prophetic of the success which will attend our great Forward Movement. It clearly demonstrates that our people, when they have the mind to do things, can do their share in all that pertains to the building of the Kingdom of God. We need not lag behind. We may march just where we will.

If ever America owed a debt to France, she owes it to her now, owes it to hear in the voiceless supplication of her soul hunger, the gentle reminder of the aged Paul to Philemon, "I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self, brother." Yes, we owe to her our spiritual sympathy and our prayers, but more imperatively still we owe it to her that not one human soul in the length and breadth of that "sweet land of France" shall be left in ignorance of what the Reformed religion of Christ is, and of what it has done for a hundred million fellow beings in this American country which she so ardently loves and honors.—Handbook, French and Belgian Protestantism.

As the midnight and the stars are essential to the glory of the heavens, so sacrifice and immortality are essential for the glory of the sainted. We live in seemingly commonplace relationships with one another, relationships created by circumstances, which arise aimlessly out of our drifting lives, too often without conscious design or purpose. Seldom through the heat and drudgery of the long day do we see the latent immortal image which God has planted in our companions. We meet and part, we eat and drink and are merry, we work and play together, and come and go, but our comrades are only a part of life's background. We take them for granted. In some crisis the test of that divine image comes and they rise above the sky, beyond our ken. It is always the midnight—the sacrifice, the self-obliteration—that brings to light the stars that were slumbering in their bosoms. And then what dazzling beauty! They are the midnight stars. That midnight which we dreaded, which we planned to avert, which we despised—that midnight reveals the thing we knew not, and, after knowing it, we cry, "Do not take away the midnight lest I lose sight of the stars."—From "The Midnight Stars," by Rev. W. Stuart Cramer.

WHAT'S HALLOWED GROUND?

What's hallowed ground? Has earth a clod
Its Maker meant not should be trod
By man, the image of his God,
Erect and free,
Unscourged by Superstition's rod
To bow the knee?

That's hallowed ground, where, mourned and missed,
The lips repose our love has kissed:
But where's their memory's mansion? Is't
Yon churchyard's bowers?
No! In ourselves their souls exist,
A part of ours.

What hallows ground where heroes sleep?
'Tis not the sculptured piles you heap!—
In dews that heavens far distant weep
Their turf may bloom,
Or genii twine, beneath the deep,
Their coral tomb.

But, strew his ashes to the wind,
Whose sword or voice has served mankind,
And is he dead whose glorious mind
Lifts thine on high?
To live in hearts we leave behind,
Is not to die.

Péace, Love! The cherubim, that join
Their spread wings o'er Devotion's shrine—
Prayers sound in vain, and temples shine,
Where they are not.
The heart alone can make divine
Religion's spot.

What's hallowed ground? 'Tis what gives birth
To sacred thoughts in souls of worth!—
Peace! Independence! Truth! go forth
Earth's compass round;
And your high-priesthood shall make earth
All hallowed ground.

By all their country's wishes blessed!
When Spring, with dewy fingers cold,
Returns to deck their hallowed mould,
She there shall dress a sweeter sod
Than Fancy's feet have ever trod.

By forms unseen their dirge is sung;
There Honor comes, a pilgrim gray,
To bless the turf that wraps their clay;
And Freedom shall awhile repair
To dwell, a weeping hermit, there.

RECONSTRUCTION WORK IN FRANCE

The accompanying picture of Pastor De Grenier Latour and his family is of special interest in this country on account of the prominent place the several members occupy in the reconstruction work of France. The Protestants are taking an active part in rebuilding the life of France and even before the signing of the armistice, November 11, 1918, many patriotic French leaders viewed with alarm the relaxation of discipline and private morality which was sure to follow as an after-effect of the World War. At a reception Marshall Joffre said: "France is in such very great need that whatever you do cannot fail to be of service. The people will need not merely material assistance. Moral help will be required, for there is bound to be a tendency to let down morally in the face of such great losses."

French Protestants are able and ready to supply moral leadership and they have welcomed the cooperation of Protestants in America. Through their pulpits, their hospitals, their social settlements, their Boy Scouts, their re-education work for mutilated soldiers, they are planning to build the morale of France by spreading the spirit of Christ. Paris is the headquarters of the social work of the French Protestant churches. In the very heart of the city is the Central Hall of the McAll Mission, directed by Pastor De Grenier Latour. The feature of this settlement is its large children's work. Mme. De Grenier Latour and her daughter are able assistants.

The development of the Boy Scout movement is another important means by which the Protestants of France hope to do their part in training healthy citizens, both bodily and spiritually. This movement was introduced into France by Chaplain Gallienne, one of the ten Protestant chaplains in the French Navy.

These are but a few of the many examples of the reconstruction work which is being carried on in France. The people of the Reformed Church may well feel proud of their contributions to this work, the need of which is expressed in the following words: "No Protestant church in Paris is so small that it has not thirty or forty dead. Devastation and the high cost of living are causing more suffering in France and Belgium today than during the actual fighting. Seven hundred thousand Protestants are practically dependent for all relief on their church organizations. Under these circumstances the Protestant churches are barely able to keep going much less advance to meet the opportunity and the need."

William Jennings Bryan, President of the National Dry Federation, to whom was presented a loving cup; Hon. Wayne B. Wheeler, attorney for the Anti-Saloon League; Prof. Charles S. Scanlon, Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Temperance and General Secretary of the National Dry Federation; E. H. Cherrington, editor of the Anti-Saloon League publications; E. C. Dinwiddie, legislative superintendent National Anti-Saloon League and representing the Church Temperance Federations; Rufus W. Miller, D. D., chairman joint executive committee National Temperance Society and committee on temperance of the Federal Council of Churches.

Large credit is due the National Christian Temperance Union for the passage of the prohibition amendment. As early as 1890 this great organization secured the passage of teaching scientific temperance and the evils of alcohol in the various Legislatures throughout the United States, and under the leadership of Miss Frances Willard, the National Sunday School Convention meeting in Pittsburgh 1890, authorized the issue of Quarterly Temperance Lessons in the Sunday Schools of America. The seed sown in this way in the Church and Sunday Schools of America has borne fruit.

In the field of political activity the Anti-Saloon League stands foremost, while the Churches, through their temperance organizations and coöperation with temperance societies, including the time-honored National Temperance Society, have had much to do with the success of the prohibition amendment.

After a pastorate of sixteen months he accepted a call to Zion Church, Hagerstown, Md., where he labored until the time of his death. Dr. Kieffer was Associate Editor of the Reformed Church Messenger for a number of years. He was a member of the Board of Foreign Missions, the Board of Visitors of the Theological Seminary, Lancaster, and the Board of Regents of Mercersburg Academy. He also served as President of Potomac Synod. He is survived by his widow, five sons and two daughters.

REV. J. WILLIAM KNAPPENBERGER was a graduate of the Theological Seminary, Lancaster, class of '76, and at one time president of Allentown College for Women. He died on May 30, 1919, in Niantic, Conn., where he was pastor of the Congregational Church.

REV. NATHAN C. SCHAEFFER, D.D., for more than a quarter of a century Superintendent of Public Instruction of the State of Pennsylvania, died in Lancaster, Pa., March 15, 1919. He was born February 3, 1849, in Maxatawny Township, Berks County, Pa. He was educated in Maxatawny Seminary (now Keystone State Normal School), Franklin and Marshall College, Theological Seminary at Mercersburg, and in the Universities of Berlin, Tubingen and Leipsic; taught in Mercersburg College, Franklin and Marshall College; was for 16 years principal of the Keystone State Normal School; was elected president of the National Education Association in 1905. He served as president of the Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association; secretary of the National Council of Education; president of the Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association; president of the Pennsylvania German Society; chancellor of the Pennsylvania Chautauqua at Mt. Gretna from 1901 to 1905; was a member of the Pennsylvania Commission on Industrial Education; and chairman of the commission which framed the new school code for Pennsylvania. He was editor of the Pennsylvania School Journal from 1893, also editor of a volume of Bible readings for schools; author of "Thinking and Learning to Think," and of a history of education in Pennsylvania. He was appointed and commissioned as Superintendent of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania in 1893. He was ex-officio a member of the Pennsylvania Dental Council, of the Bureau of Medical Education, and licensure of the Bureau of Professional Education and ex-officio president of the State Board of Education. He was second vice-president of the Board of Trustees of Franklin and Marshall College and a member of the Board of Visitors of the Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa. He served as lecturer in education in the graduate department of the University of Pennsylvania during the absence of Dr. Brumbaugh as Commissioner of Education in Porto Rico (1900-1901). He has lectured in nearly every State of the Union and has contributed many articles to educational and religious periodicals. He is survived by his widow, two sons and five daughters.

REV. NEHEMIAH H. SKYLES was born at Martinsburg, Blair County, Pa., June 22, 1837, and died in Woodstock, Va., December 3, 1918. He graduated from Franklin and Marshall College in 1860 and from the Theological Seminary, Mercersburg, in 1862. In 1863, he was ordained and installed as pastor of the Schellsburg, Bedford County, Pa., charge. He also served the Sulphur Springs charge from 1873-75; Jefferson, Md., from 1875-89; Grace Mission, Jeannette, Pa., from 1889-93; and Woodstock, Va., from 1893-1908. Since that time he lived in retirement in Woodstock, Va. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. J. W. Martin, Rev. Eugene P. Skyles, Major W. W. Skyles, H. H. Skyles, J. R. Skyles, and C. C. Skyles; and one brother, Rev. Calvin Skyles. His wife preceded him in death on April 4, 1918.

REV. TILGHMAN O. STEM was born near Cherryville, Northampton County, Pa., December 4, 1841, and died in Easton, Pa., January 9, 1919. He was a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College and of the Seminary at Lancaster, class of 1866. He was licensed to preach in May, 1867, and was commissioned, together with Rev. D. S. Fouse, as a missionary to the West. After a careful survey, he was convinced that the time was not ripe for a lone-handed missionary to launch a Reformed work in this section and returned to the East. On October 6, 1867, he was installed as pastor of the Manheim Charge, Lancaster County, Pa. In the fall of 1870, he assumed the pastorate of the Lower Saucon Charge. On August 1, 1876, he accepted a call to St. Mark's Church, Easton, Pa., which he served for a period of twenty-two years. During this time he served for twenty-one years as stated clerk of East Pennsylvania Classis. In 1901 he was called to the Paradise Charge, Turbotville, Pa., which he served until 1914, at which time, owing to his advanced years, he decided to retire from the active ministry. However, he was prevailed upon to act as supply-pastor of West Hazleton, Pa., for a short time, and later, up to within a few days of his death, he preached for the congregation at Oxford Furnace, N. J. During all his period of service of fifty-one years and eight months, he never missed a single appointment.

REV. GUSTAV A. SWEDES, D.D., was born in Covington, Ky., on June 20, 1866, and died, after a lingering illness of more than three years, in Albuquerque, New Mexico, March 2, 1919. He received his education in the schools of Fort Wayne, Ind., Maryland Academy, Franklin and Marshall College, and the Seminary at Lancaster, graduating from the latter institution in 1886. He served charges at Frostburg, Md., Kutztown, Bethlehem, and Allentown, Pa. His service in Christ Church, Bethlehem, Pa., covered a period of twenty-one years. He is survived by his widow, one son and one daughter.

REV. CLARENCE CHARLES TROXELL was born at Cementon, Lehigh County, Pa., April 5, 1892, and died in Ridgely, Md., December 15, 1918. After attending the public schools of his home township, he entered the high school at the age of 11, graduating with the first honors of his class at the age of 14. In the autumn of 1906 he attended the Allentown Preparatory School. He entered Muhlenberg College the same year and was graduated with honors in 1912. After working for two years in the office of the Northampton and Bath R. R. Company, he entered the Theological Seminary, Lancaster, graduating in May, 1917. He was licensed to preach on June 5, 1917, and accepted a call from St. Paul's Church, Ridgely, Md., which he served devotedly until the time of his death.

The foregoing summaries, compiled from the official statistics furnished by the Classical Stated Clerks for the year 1919, show the following facts:

Loss in Communicant Membership, 116.

Gain in Benevolent Contributions, $71,362.00.

Gain in Contributions for Congregational Expenses, $104,273.00.

Students for the Ministry, 222.

Eureka Classis sent no report for 1919; therefore the figures submitted in 1918 had to be used.

I hereby certify that the above summaries are correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

J. RAUCH STEIN,
Stated Clerk of General Synod.

WHEN YOU HAVE MUSIC PROBLEMS, CONSULT US

The Music Department of our Board is a department of helpfulness—it was organized for this purpose—and hundreds of our Churches will testify to the fact that it has been of real assistance in many ways.

WE PUBLISH excellent material for use in all departments of Church activities and our publications are held in high esteem by ministers and other workers in all denominations. We feel our own publications will more than please you.

But, in addition, we fill orders for everything published by others, and always at publishers' rates.

TO YOU! By L. M. CROSS

If you knew that
A dollar twenty would
Buy knowledge that would Give you information
That you could impart
To your children that
Would give them
Character, health, and happiness,
Wouldn't you invest it?
If you knew that a
Dollar twenty would
Put into your hands
A book that would help
You to make your life
A successful one
If you are a young Woman or man, would
You withhold it?
If you knew that
A dollar twenty, if you
Contemplated matrimony or

Were newly married, would
Make you as a husband
Or as a wife
Wise in things that
You ought to know,
Wouldn't you be quick
To spend it?
If you were 45
And beyond, thinking that
You knew it all
And were assured
That you didn't really
Know, wouldn't you be
Happy to invest a
Dollar twenty so that you
Could round your life
To what it ought to
Be
Here are the books
That will make you wise,
Whoever you may be.

"What a Young Boy Ought to Know"
"What a Young Man Ought to Know"
"What a Young Husband Ought to Know"
"What a Man of 45 Ought to Know"
"What a Young Woman Ought to Know"
"What a Young Wife Ought to Know"
"What a Woman of 45 Ought to Know"
Pick out the books you Need and send the Money on to us at
A dollar twenty for each
Book ordered and you
Will have them delivered
To your home wherever
You may reside.

LIFE ANNUITY BONDS

If you are living on your income and will in all likelihood never need to spend the principal, why not make a perfectly safe investment at a fair rate of interest by taking a Life Annuity Bond? You will receive the interest as long as you live and the Board will have the use of the money at once.

Write to the Secretary of the Board you are interested in. He will explain the plan to you.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES

Founded at Carlisle, March, 1825

LANCASTER, PENNA.

This School of Theology, the oldest educational institution of the Reformed Church, is conducted under the direction of three English Synods: The Eastern Synod, the Pittsburgh Synod, and the Synod of the Potomac.

Its financial affairs are managed by a Board of Trustees, consisting of eighteen laymen. Instruction and discipline are subject to the authority of a Board of Visitors, consisting of twelve ministers. The Visitors and Trustees are chosen from the ministers and elders of the three Synods.

The Course of Instruction embraces three years and includes all the branches of a complete education for the Christian ministry.

A fine Dormitory and Refectory were recently added to the equipment, in which room and board may be had at reasonable rates.

The Seminary year begins on the second Thursday of September.

For further information address the President of the Faculty, Rev. John C. Bowman, D.D.

Franklin and Marshall College

LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA

Established 1787

Third Oldest College in Pennsylvania

Franklin and Marshall College offers complete four year courses of study, leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. The group elective system of studies, covering a wide range, is formed with reference to general culture and life work.

Modern, well equipped laboratories afford excellent opportunities for work in Physics, Chemistry and Biology and in preparation for the study of medicine and commercial chemistry.

Adequate equipment including Recitation Hall, Science Building, Literary Society Halls, Observatory, Library, Gymnasium and Athletic Field.

The Faculty consists of men of profound and accurate scholarship, who hold that the upbuilding of mind and character is the chief function of the college, and care for the individual development of each student.

A college whose graduates make exceptional records. Emphasis is placed on the quality of work rather than upon the number of students.

Master's degree may be secured through post-graduate work of one year.

FAIRVIEW PARK HOSPITAL (Formerly German Hospital)

An institution of the Reformed Church for the care of the sick and the needy, belonging to a society composed of members of the Reformed Church. Membership is open to any person who is a member of the Reformed Church upon the payment of one dollar annually.

A Training School for Nurses is maintained in connection with the Hospital. The School is recognized by the State Medical Board of Ohio. The School offers a course in training equal to the best. We especially urge young women of our churches to remember this School if they desire a course in nurses' training. We extend a hearty invitation to join the Hospital Society or to support the institution with gifts for its large charity work.

St. Paul's Orphans' Home of the REFORMED CHURCH in the UNITED STATES

Located on a farm of 400 acres, near Greenville, Pennsylvania; has seven substantial brick buildings arranged after the "Cottage Plan," making it possible to give each child personal care. This Home aims to give the children coming under its care wholesome food, comfortable clothing, clean and healthful surroundings, and just treatment; to teach them to work as well as to play, and to depend upon themselves; to be neat, courteous, and economical; to give them a good Christian education, and to prepare them to become useful men and women.

All friends of homeless children are invited to visit the Home, examine our methods, and note the results in the life and conduct of our children, and to give our work assistance in whatever way they can.

As this Home is constantly enlarging and increasing its capacity, contributions are needed to erect and furnish additional buildings; to provide for the constantly growing family; and to increase the endowment fund. Further information may be obtained from Rev. A. M. Keifer, Superintendent, Greenville, Pa.

There is nothing in all the world so important as children, nothing so interesting. If ever you wish to go in for some form of philanthropy, if ever you wish to be of any real use in the world, do something for children.—David Starr Jordan.

The HOME for AGED PEOPLE of the REFORMED CHURCH in the U. S.

The Home shelters at present nine aged people in the house leased, but with the help of God the Church will erect its own building in the near future.

The Home is founded, not only for ministers and their widows, but also for members of the Reformed Church who in their old age are in need of a home. Poor, but worthy, members of the Church find shelter therein; also people of means receive for their money a suitable home. All, however, may here spend the evening of their lives in peace and comfort, supposing, of course, that they can be happy in a home whose family life is pervaded by a spirit of Christian order.

Applicants must produce a recommendation from their pastor and consistory. More specific information will be given by

NELSON BIBLES SUITABLE FOR EVERY AGE AND NEED

Ninety-nine per cent. of our social problems would dissolve if the entire population of the United States were taught to read the Bible.
It should be the Best and Most Accurate Version.

THE AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE

(Authorized and Translated by American Revision Committee)

THE SAME OLD BIBLE

that we have always used, but it gives the exact meaning of the inspired writers, in the language of today, instead of in the language used three hundred years ago.

The American Standard Bible is used by all the Colleges, Theological Seminaries, and Bible Training Schools in the United States, and has become with them as with the editors of all the Sunday School periodicals, The Authorized Standard Version.

ALL THE LEADING SUNDAY SCHOOLS

use it in their lessons, because they realize that it brings the plain reader more closely into contact with the exact thought of the sacred writers than any other version now current in Christendom.

Made in 250 styles and 10 sizes of type. From 55 cents up.

OUR BIBLE STORY BOOKS

FOR HOME, SUNDAY SCHOOL AND CATECHETICAL CLASSES

Bible Stories, Book I.

ARRANGED IN 56 LESSONS ACCORDING TO THE CHURCH CALENDAR. Large 12mo. 209 pages. With illustrations.

Arrangement and plan of book: first, a short and clear statement of the Bible narrative, then a Golden Text, or central passage, followed by questions covering the lesson. In this way such Old Testament questions as the following are taken up: The creation, fall, deluge, tower of Babel, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, Canaan, David, the Kingdoms of Israel and Judah, the Babylonian captivity and the return; the annunciation and birth of Jesus, public ministry of our Lord, suffering and death of Christ, Pentecost, spreading of the gospel by the apostles and many others.

This book is so complete and excellent in the field covered that we would wish it might be used in all Bible Schools in the Reformed Church, in order to ground our young people thoroughly in a solid basis of Bible knowledge. It is a lamentable fact that with all the pretense of the study of literature these days in our schools and colleges, the Bible is about the least thoroughly known of all the classics.

THE MOODY BIBLE INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO

International

FOUNDED BY D. L. MOODY IN 1886

"The West Point of Christian Service"

Interdenominational

TRAINING FREE

The Object of the Institute is to give free training to men and women in the knowledge of the English Bible, Gospel Music, Personal Evangelism and Practical Methods of Christian Work, so that they may become effective Bible teachers, Evangelists, Missionaries, Gospel Singers, Sunday School and Mission Workers, etc. The course of the regular Day Classes covers two years and had an enrollment in 1918-19 of 975.

The Evening Classes

duplicate the curriculum of the Day Classes, the courses and diploma being now equivalent to those of the Day Classes. The full course covers four years. The enrollment for the year 1918-19 was 1208.

The Correspondence Department is for the benefit of those who cannot attend the Institute classes in person, but desire to pursue systematic correspondence Bible study. Eight courses are given, viz.: Synthetic Bible Study, Bible Doctrine, Chapter Summary, Practical Christian Work, Evangelism, Christian Evidences, Introductory Bible Course, and the Scofield Bible Course. The total enrollment for 1918-19 was over 5437.

The Extension Department

supplies Evangelists, Bible Teachers, and Gospel Singers for Churches and Missions, and conducts Bible Conferences, Music Classes and Evangelistic Meetings in all parts of the country.

The Christian Workers Magazine

is the official organ of the Institute and is devoted to the promotion of Bible Study and the various forms of Christian service. Eighty pages or more monthly. $1.50 a year to any part of the world. Rev. James M. Gray, D.D., Editor.
